SENIOR VOLUNTEERS OPPORTUNITIES!
CAN YOU HELP?

The St. Louis Park Senior Program has volunteer opportunities available in every aspect of the program. If you like to meet new people, know what is going on in the Senior Program and share your enthusiasm for the program ... become a Lenox volunteer. To learn more, call Rita or Julie 952-928-6444.

- Activities Supervisor: Liaison between the members and staff. Record attendance, collecting fees, contact participants of cancellations or time changes, relaying important program information.
- Computer Instructor or Assistant: Helps train other senior members on use of personal computers.
- Committee Member: Committees available: hospitality, humanities, volunteer or special events.
- Hospitality Committee: Greet all visitors and answer questions about Community Education programs. Register new or renewing members or enroll individuals in program activities. Good phone skills and computer skills are a plus.
- Instructor: Share a special talent such as knitting, line dancing or playing an instrument with other seniors.

- Newscaster Proofing Team: Proof read newsletter or other program materials.
- Outing Supervisor: Arrive early to get tour information, check-in travelers, announce schedule, check-in at all destinations, present reservation form(s) or payment, confirm time and location of pick up plus other details required.
- Recording Secretary for a Committee: Take, type and email notes to be distributed to committee members.
- Special Events Planning Committee: Help plan a variety of events such as Waffle Dinner, Spaghetti Dinner, Bake Sale, Lunch & Learn, membership campaign, or class registration.

Still unsure? Consider this ---- volunteering gives you a chance to share life experiences, learn new skills, develop new interests, and make new friends and more
